2. Rouen

Located in an exceptionally rich and diverse region in the heart of Normandy with the historic towns of Rouen and Elbeuf at its center. The area is crossed by one of the most beautiful and famous rivers in the world: the Seine and whether you choose to stay on the riverbank or in the depth of the countryside or on the beautiful coastline this region is the perfect place to relax and enjoy life.

The Seine valley region offers picturesque villages, green pastures and fertile orchards and a warm welcome wherever you decide to stop.

The area is the ideal spot for bike rides, hiking and walking and all open-air activities and visitors will find it difficult to choose from the many places of interest or the countless activities available.

Claude Monet

In Rouen Seine Valley there is something for you whether your interest lies in sport, art and architecture or just enjoying the countryside or whether you are travelling solo or with your family we have the answer!
